Despite some claims that the economic crisis has slowed down or put an end to globalisation see, for instance, James it just as possible that it may actually help to speed up certain aspects of globalisation in ways not directly linked to international trade. The scientific window will open through reading. Banks spoke briefly, and snidely, to me about her work; without citing examples, he said that it was riddled with errors, in part because she saw deep ties where there were only glancing connections. Quick read. Enjoy, Wonder
