Casual: Part 2 (Power Play Series Book 10)

Teaching will be mostly between the weekday hours of 5. A drunken real estate closing took place, waitstaff argued about who was the best, cat fried in kerosene was passed off as mozzarella sticks, and Evan had a great recurring character.

Christian Fiction: Left Behind in Israel (Book 2): Deep Love During Armageddon

As, in one way, its freedom and lawlessness, its love of novelty, experiment, "strangeness added to beauty," contrast with the classical respect for rules, models, formulae, precedents, conventions; so, in another way, its discontent with things as they are, its idealism, aspiration, mysticism contrast with the realist's conscientious adherence to fact. So, as Jake illustrates without pressing this exact point we need something more profound than a left wing critique or a historic conservative critique; both have true insights but neither are adequate.
